- Fill in the form provided by Google. Your username will actually become a gmail email address. Don't worry, if you don't want to use gmail, you don't have to. Fill out the form completely and click the Next Step button. (You can skip the next steps and go straight to Get Started)

Your Google Account is more than just Search.
Talk, chat, share, schedule, store, organize, collaborate, discover and create. Use Google products from Gmail to Google+ to YouTube, view your search history, all with one username and password, all backed up all the time and easy to find at (you guessed it) Google.com.

Take it all with you.
A Google Account lets you access all your stuff — Gmail, photos and more — from any device. Search by taking pictures, or by voice. Get free turn-by-turn navigation, upload your pictures automatically, and soon even buy things with your phone using Google Wallet.

Share a little. Or share a lot.
Share selectively with friends, family (maybe even your boss) on Google+. Start a video Hangout with friends, text a group all at once, or just follow posts from people who fascinate you. Your call.

Work in the future.
Get a jump on the next era of doing, well, everything. Watch as colleagues or partners drop in a photo, update a spreadsheet, or improve a paragraph, in real-time, from 1,000 miles away. Google Docs is free with a Google Account.

3. Congratulations! You can now start your review. Click on Start rating (the graphic to the left).

The screenshot shows the Google Places interface. At the top, it says "Google places" and "Connecting you with the places you love". Below this, there are two main sections. The left section is titled "Rate and share places on Google" and features a photo of a woman holding a card with a red location pin icon. Below the photo is the text "Local recommendations - powered by you and your friends" and "Find, rate and share places you know to discover new ones you'll love." A blue button labeled "Start rating" with a right-pointing arrow is circled in red. The right section is titled "Get your business found on Google" and features a photo of a woman standing in front of a store with a large red location pin icon. Below the photo is the text "Claim your business listing on Google - for free" and "Sign up for Google Places, or login to learn insights about your business." A blue button labeled "Get started" with a right-pointing arrow is also present. At the bottom, there is a "Related products" section with two items: "The ultimate pocket guide - right on your phone" and "Advertise online, quickly and easily".

THANK YOU FOR YOUR REVIEW! WE APPRECIATE IT!

Tips for writing reviews:

1. State what you hired us for.
2. Write out what your experience was – this is generally about how you were treated, how quickly or slowly things went, the type of customer service you experienced, and your overall feeling about everything.
3. Next, simply state if you would recommend or rehire us and why.

Example: I hired Gill Security to add a monitored security system to our home. The technician came to my home at the time promised, was thorough, professional, polite, and explained everything to me. Everything was done quickly and completely to my satisfaction. I would most definitely recommend Gill Security to everyone because of the prices and professionalism.
